Morning Only* 9 a.m.-12:30 p.m.: Members $100, Non-Members $170 per week

Our 1st-5th grade summer camps feature:

- Four weeks and sessions to choose from (sold by week)
- Multiple age groups offered in same week
- Morning only* or full day class options
- Art techniques and cultural themes explored through gallery visits, art projects, books, and theater activities

Mornings will focus on theme introductions, gallery visits, and in-depth art projects that will be created throughout the week. Afternoons will continue the week's theme with different art projects, gallery visits, theme-related games, and collaborative activities.*

The Artist Studio Experience, 6th-12th Grade

August 2 – 13, 2010

10 a.m.- 4 p.m., Members $150, Non-Members $280

The Artist Studio Experience offers 6th-12th graders the opportunity to work with a local practicing artist from a specialized field of fine art. Participants will discover art techniques used throughout history and learn about art terms and artists specific to the week's theme as they create their own works of art. Each week, participants will also see examples of the teaching artist's portfolio, and have the opportunity to converse about art careers, portfolio development, and the vast applications of art.
